You will not coarse words I never meant to say
And you'll never get the feeling
Of this authenticity
Because you've always live a life you can't Sustain when you've ever had a chance
I guess it's time to put your pictures away
Because I'm learning to say

Go ahead and run
And let your fire burn
But we are still one
And I am what you left undone

Has the taste of pursuit become bittersweet
When you haven't found what you're looking for
It was right beneath your feet
You gave up when I gave in
I'd tell the story
But it seems to be missing the end
I'd sing the song but it's got no melody
So I'm learning to say

Go ahead and run
And let your fire burn
But we are still one
And I am what you left undone

I'm falling down
And I know it's gonna hurt when I finally hit the ground
Erasing you
Because all you seem to be is a silhouette to me
I can't stop you anymore
No I can't stop you anymore
