If you've ever been in love, then you will understand the sweet mystery

Between a man and a woman
Truly a phenomenon - just how it comes to be
Oh out of all the people in this world,
You were meant for me
And out of all the plans He has for you
I'm a part of your destiny

And I want the world to know
That you are the only one
Baby it's incredible, just how you make me feel
Our God has been so generous I couldn't ask for any more
It was you that He made me for and I love you

Tell me do you really know
Just what it means when I say "forever"
I will settle for eternity
Just to see your spirit free
Every time we are together

I can't imagine how my life would be if I had to do it without you
Oh baby can't you see, I'll do anything
Whatever it takes to prove

And I want the world to know

That you are the only one
Baby it's incredible, just how you make me feel
Our God has been so generous I couldn't ask for any
more
It was you that He made me for and I love you

It couldn't be a better time
For you to come into my life
The Father knew just what I would need when He gave you to me
And I realize - our love was written in the skies
It's as unchanging as the beautiful sunrise
I see heaven when I look in your eyes

And baby heaven is forever
