I will understand
If they can't comprehend
All of the time we spend
'Cause it's beautiful

When you speak to me
Whispering softly
Love sweet melodies
That are beautiful

I'm in love with you
So in love with you
And they just don't know what you do to me
I'm in love with you
So in love with you
And they'll never know
What you do to me

Clothing me in righteousness Lord
I must confess
I hold you to your promises
That are beautiful

You've become my everything
Your presence makes me weak
/]
'Til there are no words to speak
But "Oh so beautiful"

I'm in love with you
So in love with you
And they just don't know what you do to me
I'm in love with you
So in love with you
And they'll never know
What you do to me

They don't really know what you do to me
They don't understand how you make me free
When we're all alone and it's me and you
There's not enough expression for the things you do

I'm in love with you
So in love with you
And they just don't know what you do to me
I'm in love with you
So in love with you
And they'll never know
What you do to me
