Wait a minute here, you walked out of my life, just a second here, to breathe, will you open up and let me inside

Goodbye to you, and everything, goodbye to you, and everything you do

You walked into my life, and took me by surprise, you gave me everything, and left me with all of these lies

Wait a minute here, one fucking minute here, you walked out of my life, I hope you fucking die

Goodbye to you, and everything, goodbye to you, and
everything you do

gave me everything, and left me with all of these lies
