

Ayreon

"And The Rains Come"

Visit "And The Rains Come" on MotoLyrics.com

Again as I go Off to this never ending war
My life comes crashing down Bringing me back where I was before The family I leave behind at the gates waiting for me to return to show God's grace I've always been taught to be selfless and generous even with my life but how can you tell someone that when they have a family and a wife

"You'll drown in your sorrows and you'll die tomorrow" A lesson from my child hood but could it be true on this battlefield of youth I think I need to leave this life behind

So tell me where to go Tell me how to learn to cope I've left behind my life, my treasures and watched my funeral from heaven's slopes A knight of the round table once so generous with his life I finally realize
It wasn't worth my death that night.

Visit Ayreon page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.