

Austen Leathers

"Don't Hate"

Visit "Don't Hate" on MotoLyrics.com

I started skippin' school at age fourteen.
I don't need an education or a college degree.
Because my swagga's super sick,
My flow so smooth.
When I opened up my mouth it just sold and I sued.
I wear v-necks and my jeans are tight.
My rhymes are narley and my skin is white.
I wish we didn't judge, but it's just what we do.
I worry about me and you, keep worry about-you.

Don't hate 'cause you ain't got love,
I know that you don't got none.
Don't hate 'cause you ain't got love,
I know that you don't got none, you don't got none.

Take a look around and be ashamed,
All this hate in the world, but hatin' ain't for me.
I try to love my neighbor the way I love myself,
And I love the god on top more then I love anyone else.
I play what I love and
I love what I play and
I put my whole heart into every word I say and
I could be the difference between you and me
So as I sing these words listen careful-aly.

Don't hate 'cause you ain't got love,
I know that you don't got none.
Don't hate 'cause you ain't got love,
I know that you don't got none, you don't got none.

[Bop, bop, bop, bop, bodada, lada, ooohh-ooohhh-
oohhh x6]

Don't hate 'cause you ain't got love,
I know that you don't got none.
Don't hate 'cause you ain't got love.
I know that you don't got none, you don't got none,
You don't got none,
You don't got none,
You don't got none.

