You really need to know,
That I'm the worst that I've been,
But I'm Happy, oh happy,
Even if it's with him.

And it will always hurt that I,
Can pick up the phone,
And tell you you're beautiful,
Oh you already know,

If you just give me time I could make this ok,
I'm broken right now and I have been for days
You know that I need you it's so evident,
I'll never let go of those late nights,
We spent,

And if it's gonna take,
All the patience I have,
Then I swear then i'll wait,
For that day you look back,

If you just give me time I could make this ok,
I'm broken right now and i have been for days
You know that I need you it's so evident,
I'll never let go of those late nights,

You of all people know that I can do this,
I'm far too weak,
I'll poison my body now each night till I figure out,
Who I'm supposed to be,
This ain't me,

If you just give me time I could make this ok,
I'm broken right now and I have been for days,
You know that I need you it's so evident,
I'll never let go of those late nights,
We spent,
