Well, I have my days when all my flags are flyin
And Im feelin brighter than a brand new dime
When Im in style it's easy to love me
But will you still love me when Ive lost my shine?

Oh and then there's days I can feel the light has left me
And it's a shadowland inside this soul of mine
Til I can fight my way out of the darkness
Will you still love me when Ive lost my shine?

Chorus:

Sometimes Im not so pretty
Sometimes Im downright ugly
Sometimes it's a little bit dirty
Under my nails
And once in awhile even a steady heart fails

Well, my mirror never lies unless I let it
It don't hide no grey or smooth out any lines
And I know it's a whole lot that Im asking
But will you still love me when Ive lost my shine?

When Im in style it's easy to love me
But will you still love me when Ive lost my shine?
Oh, I need you to love me when Ive lost my shine
