Your love it touches me
One kiss and I can't breath
One touch, I'm suffocating
Get me out, I can't breath

Afflicted feelings I should hide
There was a thousand warnings
Now this diversion I deny
I turn to things that haunt me

You're a disease
Sweet tasting rabies
You suck the life right out of me
Set me free

I think of nothing all the time
Sometimes it's nothing but you
You shouldn't mean a thing to me
You shouldn't mean

A stabbing pain stuck in my side
Not sure why I adore you
A strangled choking little cry
I would do all things for you

You're a disease
Sweet tasting rabies
You suck the life right out of me
Set me free

Just leave me be
Set me free
You're a disease
And you spread this onto me

You're a disease
(Just leave me be)
You're a disease
(Just set me free)
You're a disease
(Just leave me be)
You're a disease

(Just set me free)

A stabbing pain stuck in my side
Not sure why I adore you
A strangled choking little cry
I would do all things for you

You're a disease
Sweet tasting rabies
You suck the life right out of me
Set me free

You're a disease
I know that you need me
You suck the life right out of me
Set me free
