Visit "My Device" on MotoLyrics.com

I walk alone
I tried my hand at something new and without you, I'm better off
And on my own, I've fallen countless times
But I realized I'm better off

And I'm forgetting the mess that we were Give and take
An eye for an eye
A tooth for a tooth
A sigh for a sigh
A lie for a lie

Without you, you, without you, I'm better off

You were my device
A crutch that sustained me through life
Too crippled to put you side
Never knew why, an eye for an eye
Bruise for a bruise, was never enough to satisfy you
