It looks like Iâ'm caught in your path, but Iâ'm not the one to ask when it comes to love, if youâ're push became a shove Iâ'd give it up Itâ's the angels I think in this neverending carousel lines from ink when movement stops for just a moment and all I can see ...
Just in time
This baby has been crying all night
Why wonâ't they turn out the lights and leave me alone?
Itâ's easier falling asleep caching my panic into one of my dreams Seatbelt sign starts to blink Iâ'm sure that weâ're almost there ...
Just in time
I waited for the sky to end this all
