(Sample) Starting fresh, building slow, take my time cause now...I know (AZ) This that kush right here...this that sour...its serious... [Verse 1] I'm reinvented weed scented Coup exceeding the speed limit smoke easing through the roof Few regrets breathe through the youth I'm a seasoned vet I need no excuse baby Still rubble flights on that Delta shuttle Patron's in me so the shots is doubled no envy A few pennies polished persona Jews defend me it wasn't me honest your honor I'm a loose cannon though the truth is I'm used to handling standing tall strong like wall paneling All from Maryland spreaded my chips to them stores on Madison my fetish for chicks but umm (Chorus) Starting fresh, building slow, take my time cause now...I know (AZ laughing in background) [Verse 2] Yeah, its rap now and I still ask how Still got the vibe guess I got to be live Gear so illy gotta stay fly Appear so willy hunnies got to say hi But wave by cause I'm gone in the wind Errol Flynn blue Pradas pearl Benz few dollars girlfriend you holla My focus on never so often you could catch me with some loafers on I'm livin its all vision cautious decisions from the cost to the Porsche with the ribbons My ambitions embedded deep down in my soul I don't fold I'm forever like diamonds and gold a smoke's scroll(?) Bottles and buckles of ice I'm on the mic and ya'll thought little Weezy was nice Get a load of a lyricist duckin his mows(?) Street influences doin this since 12 years old but oh... (Chorus) [Verse 3] So I'm back ya'll Back from black ball Back with the mask off Could rap my ass off Past paused(?) then ducked the task force Tough as the asphalt Stuffed the cash vault its my fault Cause I seen it coming I guess I couldn't see me running still stunning Name still the same in humming since a younging Been feeding through illegal funding call it cunning Done with my days of dumming I'm grown up Calisthenics in the gym on the daily I'm toned up And ya'll cowards gon respect my work my word I'm worldwide with a thirst unheard yes sir... (Chorus til end and fades)
