It's about time the people notice the walls we climb they keep on closing
Evidence grows, it's stacked against us
The less we know the more we fake it

Lights out the dream is over now
I've found the end has come around
By now we should know this baby yeah

Turn away (turn away)
It's a hell of a place
How we get by just blows my mind
Turn away (turn away)
It's a hell of a place
How we get by just blows my mind

If only we knew we could fix the problem
Instead we'll burn while the world is watching
One last time we'll all be faceless as shock waves move across the nations

Lights out the dream is over now
I've found the end has come around
By now we should know this baby yeah

Turn away (turn away)
It's a hell of a place
How we get by just blows my mind
Turn away (turn away)
It's a hell of a place
How we get by just blows my mind

Turn away (turn away)
It's a hell of a place
How we get by just blows my mind
Turn away (turn away)
It's a hell of a place
How we get by just blows my mind

How do we get by
How do we get by
