When she's up with the moonlight
I'll be lucky to get her home
I'm hell-bent on a new life
Guess it's time that I let her know

Better love, love her to pieces
That's right
Better love, love the emotion anyway

All these thoughts I'm detecting
At this time we can read our minds
Overwhelmed with perspective
Shut this door and I'll pull the blinds

Better love, love her to pieces
That's right
Better love, love the emotion anyway that's right
Better love, love her to pieces
That's right
Better love, love the emotion anyway

I rub my eyes
Wake up from a dream
And it seems she's back in the city
This time I swear I'm barely asleep
I don't blink and let my body fall
I know this ones not getting away
And I pray she's back in a hurry
This time I swear I'm barely asleep, I'm barely asleep

Better love, love her to pieces
Better love, love the emotion anyway

Better love, love her to pieces
That's right
Better love, love the emotion anyway that's right
Better love, love her to pieces
That's right
Better love, love the emotion anyway
