Make your decision you know that it's long over due...
do you.

And take all these moments this motions not slowing for you... it's true.

We all give in.

Chorus

Wake up every body now let it go you can't just run and hide.

One more time

One more time

We're all pretending that we'll be around in the end... and then

We all give in.

Wake up every body now let it go you can't just run and hide.

One more time

One more time

Wake up every body now let it go you can't just run and hide.

One more time

One more time

Hey don't miss your calling we might run away hey don't miss your calling yeah.

Wake up every body now let it go you can't just run and hide.

One more time

One more time

Wake up every body now let it go you can't just run and hide.

One more time
