"Bullet In An Angel"

Come closer here
Lend me your ear
Remember when
I warned you
Maybe something more familiar

You'd put a bullet in an angel
That you held dear
You think you're better than an angel
That's why you're here

You have no ends
That I can see
After the bends
You buried maybe something more familiar

You put a bullet in an angel
That you held dear
You think you're better than an angel
That's why you're here

It isn't making any sense
No regard for consequence
Fuck whatever on your way
But you'll have hell to pay

You put a bullet in an angel

You put a bullet in an angel
That you held dear
You think you're better than an angel
That's why you're here
You put a bullet in an angel
You put a bullet in an angel
You put a bullet in an angel
You put a bullet in an angel
