(Layzie)
bet he never realized wat he really had till he looked up to the sky n wondered y he had to let it go then the picture got crystal clear the water dirtied he did he put his thang on his mental should have known wen he got invloved did he think really think he could play with her heart phasyic is so sweet frame is so small guys work her art the girl from next door but you got me on a race against the clock n i hear it tick tockin like im runnin out of time packin your clothes n tryina head for the door but im not lettin you go cuz you mines n im yours n shes torn the only thing you can do is pray to god that it aint too late procrastinate n shell shake the place you got about 4 seconds to state your case im outta time gotta say whats on my mind just to keep you in my life
