First when I listened, come up with a light sense
Had to stop and stare, saw the derriere with Curves of a goddess that really make me want you
(That walk is dangerous)
Movin' to a melody

Her hair was done like a queen from a movie scene
From behind, I felt like I was in a dream
She's sophisticated and not your ordinary
Lady

I walked over and I tapped her on her shoulder
Then she smiled and said, "Don't I know ya?"
I looked closer and skipped through my memory
Tryin' to figure out just (Who could she be?)

Now I'm
(Thinkin' back)
The girl with the glasses sittin' in the front of the classes
(Buried in the book, not worried 'bout fashion)
It's hard to imagine that that girl would be so attractive

(Shawty, you've been graduated)
Back in school, I didn't even notice
Now it's all eyes on you
(I wanna get promoted)
Try to be discreet, my apology
'Cause that body's killin' me

Girl, you don't look the same to me
You done went and flipped the game on me
I really like what I see
(Shawty, you've been graduated)

Good intention from the man in the spot now
When you're comin' through, you know how to shut it down
(Sexy with confidence and knowin' how to flaunt it)
It's all so fabulous
(Put your femininely)

Ain't no question it's a blessing, so impressive
I believe that it's no
(Coincidence that we met)
Yeah, times have changed and now you're ready for me

She was honest so I gave her the number
Then whispered in my ear, I wanna move faster
Let's get closer and make some new memories
Enough of all this talkin'
(Time to see)

Now I'm
(Thinkin' back)
To the girl with the glasses sittin' in the front of the classes, yeah
(Buried in the book, not worried 'bout fashion)
It's hard to imagine that that girl would be so attractive

(Shawty, you've been graduated)
Back in school, I didn't even notice
Now it's all eyes on you
(I wanna get promoted)
Try to be discreet, my apology
But that body's killin' me

Girl, you don't look the same to me
You done went and flipped the game on me
I really like what I see
(Shawty, you've been graduated)
Graduated

If I would have known, would've walked you home
We could've spent long nights on the phone
Now we've both grown, girl, let's get it on (I'll make you lose control with the things that I've known)

If I would have known, would've walked you home
We could've spent long nights on the phone
Now we've both grown, girl, let's get it on (I'll let you decide how many rounds we'll go)

(Shawty, you've been graduated)
Back in school, I didn't even notice
Now it's all eyes on you
(I wanna get promoted, girl)
Tryin' to be discreet, my apology
But your body's killin' me

Girl, you don't look the same to me
You done went and flipped the game on me
I really like what I see
