VERSE 1:

The sunlight sets at dawn
The shadow of an empty day
The nice deep heat is gone,
And words become less to say
It seems that you're out of reach
Missing you voice, start to hear you speak
I feel so incomplete without you beside me

CHORUS:

I'm on my way to be with you, the world's in my way I
make a move
There's no excuse, hurricane or an earthquake can't keep me from you,
Can't keep me from you

VERSE 2:

The turn you lets a strong, put my hands together to pray
The minutes and hours seem long
But my struggles, my focus won't stray
My journey's taking on a face of its own
Most would give up in the face of this storm
But not me, won't let you live without me,
It can't be

CHORUS:

I'm on my way to be with you, the world's in my way I
make a move

There's no excuse, hurricane or an earthquake can't
keep me from you,
Can't keep me from you

VERSE 3:

When we're face to face I'm loving your heart,
I'm greedier, want your everything
When we're seperated it tears me apart,
I need you to pull me back together baby

H00K:

We're only moments in faith, the distance is erased

And when I get there our love will take flight,
You better believe it, believe it!

OUTRO:

I'm on my way to be with you, the world's in my way I
make a move

There's no excuse, hurricane or an earthquake can't
keep me from you,

Can't keep me from you

I'm on my way to be with you, the world's in my way I
make a move

There's no excuse, hurricane or an earthquake can't
keep me from you,

Can't keep me from you
