There comes a day when we all find out for ourselves
That once we have the words to say, there's no one left to tell
I know why you're running away.

There's a place where nothing seems to be a simple quite cohesively
It's all your mind, all your mind
Something little shouldn't feel this way, We got a million thoughts we can't convey It's all your life, all your life

It's four in the morning, you got one more chance to die
Like beautiful stories the greatest chapters flew right by
There comes a day when we all find out for ourselves
That once we have the words to say, there's no one left
to tell
I know why you're running away.

These things don't happen here; another fictional reality
It's all you'll find, all you'll find It's just as good as any other day, I'm gonna teach you about mortality
No, it's not right, it's not right

It's four in the morning, you got one more chance to
Like beautiful stories the greatest chapters flew right
by
There comes a day when we all find out for ourselves
That once we have the words to say, there's no one left
to tell
I know why you're running away.

In many ways I guess I'll never let you go I'm close behind but I've got room here left to grow Until our second chance, just enjoy the dance, and find out who we are (These dreams will never leave you)

Let's find out what we are (These dreams will never leave you, Never leave you asking why)

It's four in the morning, you got one more chance to
Like beautiful stories the greatest chapters flew right
by
There comes a day when we all find out for ourselves
That once we have the words to say, there's no one left
to tell
I know why you're running,
I know why you're running away
