You don't know what you want
You're working everyday in a restaurant
Your life is slipping out of control
Lose you job, gonna lose your soul now
Boy--young & white but you want to make it bigger
Boy--you better watch your step
Cause you're just a white nigger.
Whe you were young you had such big plans
Such big amtitions, gonna be a good man
But look at you now--what a coward
Livin your life--you don't know how to live
Boy--little boy, young & white, want to make it bigger
Boy--and you just don't understand do you
White nigger
Work like the devil. Work like a dog.
Where does it get you? Where are you going?
Work for the money. Work for the show.
Work for the people but you don't know
Why?
Boy--young & white, gonna make it bigger.
Boy--better watch your step--white nigger
See you driving around in your car
Pretend you're not what you really are.
Look in the mirrow & look in your eyes
What you discover will be no surprize.
Something is missing, something is gone
You got money but something is wrong.
It's something you had right from the start
Should have listened you your heart.
Where are you now, white nigger?
