They said, I'd make you unhappy
And you'd be, much better without me
This he said she said, has taken it's toll

And sometimes, I took you for granted
I could have been much more romantic
I guess I guess I, was such a fool

Is it too late to say I'm sorry
Too late to make things right

Cus now it's over and under
Guess she couldn't tell that I loved her
Said it's overrated, understated
But how was I to know?

I should have been open and honest
I should have said the words that she wanted to hear
If only I told her that it
Wouldn't be over and under

I know, I should have been trusting
Should have been more understanding
And listen to what, is on your mind

Cus you said, you needed attention
Then you left and taught me a lesson
Then I payed the price, and did the time

Is it too late to say I'm sorry
Is it too late to make things right

Cus now it's over and under
Guess she couldn't tell that I loved her
Said it's overrated, understated
But how was I to know?

I should have been open and honest
I should have said the words that she wanted to hear
If only I told her that it
Wouldn't be over and under

And now I'm all alone
Can't face the fact that you're gone
Cus I was blind to realize
That I was wrong

And now you need to know
I can't leave and let you go
Cus I'm nothing
Nothing without you

Without you, yeah

It's over and under
I should have said
That I loved her, yeah

Cus now it's over and under
Guess she couldn't tell that I loved her
Said it's overrated, understated
But how was I to know?

I should have been open and honest
I should have said the words that she wanted to hear
If only I told her that it
Wouldn't be over and under

Yeah, it wouldn't be over and under
If only I told her that it
Wouldn't be over and under
