You took the time, to get to know me
Showed you a side without, without a disguise
It's like you knew me, you saw right through me and It's too late, for second chances I'm Tucked in, with sweet romance and I
Want you to know

Cus every moment, tells a story
Of two kids, still falling in love
It always feels new, when I'm with you
And every second, we're together
Paints a picture, of a future with you
Cus our love, is tried and true

Take it back now, you don't wanna take a chance
You always fall back to me
This isn't happening, she said
This isn't what what she wanted and

I get down on my knees
She can never, she can't give me away
But she don't want me to stay this time
Cus I missed out but, I need you to know

Cus every moment, tells a story
Of two kids, still falling in love
It always feels new, when I'm with you
And every second, we're together
Paints a picture, of a future with you
Cus our love, is tried and true

We tried and always seemed to make it work
Giving up now, don't you think that sounds absurd?
And three words were never really good enough
Sometimes it hurts, but baby this is love
Don't you know, I'm in love

That every moment, tells a story
Of two kids, still falling in love
It always feels new, when I'm with you
And every second, we're together
Paints a picture, of a future with you

Cus our love, is tried and true

Tried and true

Tried and true

Yeah our love, is tried and true
