intro

aye lets slow it down you know I think I might have just found that one this dedicated to all my niggaz out there that talk to, date, or just friends with that girl that could be a potential soulmate verse1:

I like the way you wear your hair when you stop and stare only one thing i can say is you my 80"s girl you so beautiful and i love your ways i dream about you every night and day graceful in everyway

even love marvin gaye when them other dudes stare you tell em

(girl voice) im taken heyyy when its time for serious business you do not play and you wise...okay

its the way you wear your tights and you have them old ways

its so hard to find a girl like you nowadays these girls be bout money eating fancy filets you rather have your own 50/50 and pay your homegirls look up to you in each and everyway always stay dressing classy and keep a place to stay sometimes i picture us dating back in old days cause you have them sexy seductive old ways chorus:

I have had my share of girls throughout this world but nothing compare to you cause you my 80's girl even though we in now picture us back then

but nothing compare to you cause you my 80's girl

you my 80's girl, you my 80's girl nothing compare to you cause you my 80's girl

verse2:

dont take goose to get loose dont need mercedes happy with a coupe you so extravagant takes a real man to know you where you want to go many places to show you pictures us in the vert and you got your hair down hitting a couple corners well take over this town and i always want you happy never see you frown and if you plan on having kids...i want you around thats what a real man do he take care of his all them outside irrelevants can mind their on biz you so old school to me supper before we bed always keep a new hairstyle sitting on top your head if we so happy now picture us when we wed you my 80's girl and thats just all said dont need 2012 or 2002 need a 80's girl and guess what, "thats you"

chorus:

but nothing compare to you cause you my 80's girl
but nothing compare to you cause you my 80's girl
you my 80's girl, you my 80's girl
nothing compare to you cause you my 80's girl
even though we in now picture us back then
