(CROWDS TALKING)

OMG this is it... this is what the ancient artist were talking about

The planets have aligned ever so nicely

Avias the nemesis of rap should arrive pricisely

Someone says" sound the drums"

Verse1:

I got the crowds summoning for me cause they wanting new music

Something fresh and original... not getting the boos and

They call me king, being, the one with wings cause I'm so fly

I'm breezing through these lame rappers, wind sand to a fly

I'm so important to pop culture like sun gods to the mayans

Rappers brag about they talent but yo I aint buying

Now everyone brace yourself for the bars of the nemesis

Oh so it's funny I aint playing I'm the one that's winning this

Yall dry like a desert jennifer lopez the cell

For my fans I really love yall but the rest go to hell

I don't mean to sound to blunt but my angers released

Like a ferocisous pitbull just broke off of it's leash

Chorus: (CROWDS TALKING)

This is it this is it

I'm telling you apocalypse

Avias the nemesis

Just give it one more min

Apocalypse apocalypse

I know he coming in a minute

The nemesis the nemesis

I'm telling you apocalypse

Everyone silence

Sound the drums

Verse2:

Yall said yall want the... nemesis uma give yall the... nemesis

I drop more tracks than video game producers... sega genesis
I call these niggaz chickens cause they cannot drop something better
Females love me so I invented new earrings feathers
I told them where them all day and where them all night
Cause when you advertise for avias yo we both taking flight
I don't sell my music but these niggaz stay on the market
Just picture something like aladdin a lot of marketplace bargains
I'm all up in yall ears got yall dazed like the twilight zone
I'm like that stuff you roll up just one hit and ya gone
I'm all up in your eyeballs gone and catch a contact Cause I ran away with rap... and I aint giving it back

This is it this is it
I'm telling you apocalypse
Avias the nemesis
Just give it one more min
Apocalypse apocalypse
I know he coming in a minute
The nemesis the nemesis
I'm telling you apocalypse
