verse1:

my bars are too epic, i force these niggaz to step it rhymes so high tech need inspection like a rocket when you check it the outside world, couldnt comprehend my lyrics, to they understanding so they sent me off far far away to a place of demanding

chorus: (2x's) sing to beat im in boarding school away from the world the only thing i see outside is oak trees and squirrels im in a land of obedience im in a land of mystery im in a school with etiquette and a whole lot of history

verse2:

these niggaz werent ready for the bars of the rap nemesis they hid me far away because they knew i was their genesis my brain just shifted, i feel like some vengeance but revenge is a sin in this place i just cant commit it my brain was made for rap so my temperature stay hotter ill make these niggaz sick like crazy spells from harry potter iden-ti-ty so magical like im beyonce's daughter other rappers are so hopeless like leatherface victims slaughtered (chainsaw noise)

the only thing i see outside is oak trees and squirrels
im in a land of obedience im in a land mystery

verse3:

no more slang words its yes sir and yes mam when its a quarter pass eight to the chapel worshipping him my mother is name martha, my father his name sam im roman when i get mad its like everyone is damned but now i have structure in my life its many morals this school is now my home like a fish living in corals im studying biology im reading on some pilgrims my life repeated over like how you doing on wendy williams

im in boarding school away from the world
the only thing i see outside is oak trees and squirrels
