avias seay "call me jafar" 2012

intro:

if you wont bow before sultan then you will cower before a sorcerer ha ha ha ha ha im your master, im the lead so peasants have a seat all upcoming artist go ahead and retreat they keep magically appearing and um talking bout bars

my name aint avias no more you can me jafar verse1:

k we aint gone play no games, we gone just keep it real im your native lyricist because my bars are so ill im the reason they get headaches gone ahead pop a pill

every mc that reside in lakeland, know the deal they wonder how i did it, with the pics and bonanza streets rats um living lavish go on back to yall campers they dont be talking about shit so im putting these niggas in pampers better yet yall jack asses...go jump off a ramp uh some niggaz fake, but i roll 50 deep...snake staff these niggaz chirp, but they dirty...bird bath i gross mo hits than a calulator, you do the math yall second rate to a rap sultan, touch my temple and laugh

everyday i walk around like its my birthday my fanz forgot about chris brown and rihanna hooray i mean they hott but my fanz say i flow like a river flow so deep like an oasis in a desert for lizards chorus: 2X's

now you know me by avias but call me jafar

i said ya know me by avias but call me jafar yall know me by avias but call me jafar cause my beats is so killer and my lyrics so hard

verse2:

now what other rapper you know that can do it so well what other rappers drop music..thats gonna sell not doing work to do it just because of the fame but bringing back an artist that was killed on a plane everytime i hear they lyrics i be like try again this time you better get it right by the time i count to ten nevermind its too late i done finished the song then look that and that and that and that you did wrong uma look fly on the red carpet its gone be blast so yall better keep up with me things unraveling fast when i make it to the top me and my friends gonna ball taking trips across seas, houses like taj mahal these niggaz need a genie magically to boost up they work

all i see is lame artist, haters, and jerks they thought i lost ideas for music so i turned around dizzly said okay, here go nothing suckers then proceeded to disney

chorus: 2X's
now you know me by avias but call me jafar
