You stuck by my side no matter what
No matter what

Verse1:

Now we climbing to new heights the battle field all scattered
Long as you were by my side yo nothing else mattered
Stuck up for me when everyone else was against Didn't have strength no lyrics in you were my last defense
If they said lame, then you said hott
If they spread rumors, then you said not
Now we passing em by steady reaching the top
And I wouldn't give you up for nothing in this world
But would go the extra mile to let my love unfurl

Chorus: (2X's)

You stuck by my side
You stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
I would go the extra mile for you

Verse2:

And it's a new evolution a new resolution
You can have a dozen hataz but one good friend solve the solution
That's the power of good outwaying the bad
And some of you jealous and some of you sad
But moving right along cause you don't have my best interest
Cause I have a gladiator that's surely good invest
Sticking by my side no matter what happen
Fighting all day and night why yall lousy niggaz nappin
Be like you great avias everyone be just tripping,
I see all sides of you and nothing is missing,
Why they be so mad want to throw all them fist an,
It's okay I'll stand yo ground all them niggaz um dissing
I be like naw you all that I need
In this really cruel world of hatred and greed

Long as you stay real geniune then I will succeed
I don't need other supporters to think that they mold me

Chorus: (2X's)

You stuck by my side
You stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
I would go the extra mile for you

Verse3:

I would go the extra mile for you like I say in this song
And to the haters make me greater other rappers better run
Cause it's 2012 and I'm taking off
Beaches in belize, pent houses and lofts
Yall don't have the balls to step to me I call you soft
Every chance a whole in one yall like a game of golf
Totally on next level bury yall rhymes with a shovel
If you got beef then lets settle nevermind cause I'm clever
Cause I've been around that track like twenty times
And it aint gone happen like that but 20 rhymes
No hollaback girl like gwen stefani said
But layed back like alice so off be with their heads
Lyric game, swagg right, and a model so
I came into the game to let yall fake niggaz know Yall might have one talent but I have like fifty
Oh you don't support music I got someone to uplift me

Chorus: (2X's)

You stuck by my side
You stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
Stuck by my side
(Singing) I would go the extra mile for you
