Chorus: (2x's)

Now I'm alive, yall can call me frankenstein,
How I eat rappers up and leave the straps all behind Leave my trademark on my music so yall know that it is mine
So yall know that it is mine

Verse1:

These niggaz pissed on they self when they heard about me
How I rip bars in stormy weather under a tree Rappers listened to my lyrics, they would joke and jive
Now I got world telling me that I am alive
I got a big ego now so I'm heading for worst So much money that my head just turned green and freaking burst
With the straps females go ahead and make you a purse Got these niggaz glued to they headphones like it's a curse
Other niggaz flow outdated so throw that in the dumbster
Got so much electric devices yo that I am a monster No your ears are not fooling you go ahead and just stay with us
By the way yall didn't know who it is guess what, it's avias Yall niggaz went into the lab and created some new Started something yall couldnt finish I popped up just like boo
And I don't want to hear yall naggin cause a nigga is through All these other rappers done and guess what so are you

Chorus: (2x's)

Now I'm alive, yall can call me frankenstein,
How I eat rappers up and leave the straps all behind Leave my trademark on my music so yall know that it is
mine
So yall know that it is mine

Verse2:

Okay the first verse was hott but this second one smash

Scary rappers want to play then a halloween bash
It just so easy stealing mics, I'm the one eyed bandit
The reason why I just stand out I'm from another planet I'm all you rappers molded into one and yall just can't stand it

I tell record labels my idea and they just brand it All the fans, groupies, stalkers, yo, they just demand it All I care about is when I'm done cash just hand it Cause I gotta keep it real I love the color of green Failing to deliver compensation makes me so mean Make me want to rip these haters a new ass a new seam

Cause I don't like oreo cookies I just want the cream
I shock these niggas on the mic like I bolts in my neck Want to collab any given day just call or just text Keep strategy on these niggaz like a game of hex Name written on the dotted line of printed checks

Chorus: (2x's)

Now I'm alive, yall can call me frankenstein,
How I eat rappers up and leave the straps all behind Leave my trademark on my music so yall know that it is
mine
So yall know that it is mine
