Intro:

Ooh

Ooh

Ooh

Verse1:

I was sitting at home, all alone, started to thinking

Was my soul gonna float cause visions seeing it sinking

Sitting at my computer desk from a long of day work

In la la land visualizing all the people I done hurt

And all my sins that's so heavy like a boulder weighing me down

And all them friends say they friends when I do good don't come around

All I want is to be happy erasing this ugly frown

Years from now where will my soul be when my bodys in the ground

Chorus:

Ooh

Where do you

Want to be heaven awaits so does hell gates

Verse2:

Oh my gosh I need to read my bible

Get affiliated with christ and not what's tribal

They keep coming for me when I hit the club to party

They keep coming for me when I hit the bar for barcardi

They keep coming for me when I end up in someone house

They keep coming for me trying to make my actions so foul

They keep coming for me when I keep sleeping around

They keep coming for me even through the words out my mouth

And they keep coming through your mind from the pits of hell

Need jesus, so he can keep us, away from evil and well

So he can let the light enter breaking this evil spell

If you don't have lord as your savior you're going to hell
All the drugs, sex and thugs, is a trick of the enemy
All the strippers, bars and clubs, existing proof entity
It's a spiritual war but you gotta fight your fight
Young generation turn it around and live for christ

Chorus: (2x's)

Ooh
Where do you
Want to be heaven awaits so does hell gates

Verse2:

Our father in heaven, hallowed be thy name
Only you are the key no other man in vain
Your kingdom come, your will be done
You sent down your only begotten son
And forgive us our debts, as we forgiven our debtors Getting our souls ready for when you come back and collect us
I love you the almighty giving all back to you Sincerely, amen as I lay down two

Chorus:

Ooh
Where do you
Want to be heaven awaits so does hell gates
