Avias seay 2011 "is"

I just woke up
I am so confused
What am I to do
I'm ready for this sin to move
I got a couple of questions
When I step off in the church
Where shall I begin
My soul is really hurt

Verse1:

Is I asking way to many questions? ask god
Who is this magnificent god? find him
Should I get a breast reduction? ask god
If I'm saved then where should I start? read your bible
I'm confused on getting a tattoo? your body is your temple
Should I go out tonight too? no way
Am I gonna have a baby? ask god
Is she cheating on me too? uh oh

Chorus:

Everyone got so many questions
And god got so many answers
Just call on him with your heart
And he will be there to answer
Everyone got so many questions
And god got so many answers
Just call on him with your heart
And he will be there to answer
