Verse1:

I've opened my eyes down to the nitty gritty truth
I no longer will no longer will be criticized by you I'm a human, errors are found in everything that I do I know you want a perfect me but there's nothing perfect in you

Chorus:

I know you want a perfect world but there's nothing else
you can do
I feel ya feel ya feel you too
A mortal I'm made of and yes the rest of you too
I feel ya feel ya feel you too
I know you want a perfect world but there's nothing else
you can do
I feel ya feel ya feel you too
A mortal I'm made of and yes the rest of you too
I feel ya feel ya feel you too

Verse2:

We were born into a world of destruction and sin So we started out, started out wrong from the beginning
I used to worry about losing always focused on winning Then I realized it didn't even make any difference
I am human, I aint perfect so I make mistakes Before you go off on the deep in better put on yo breaks
Better stop talking shut up before it's too late
You are shallow and blinded yo this something I hate

Chorus:

I know you want a perfect world but there's nothing else
you can do
I feel ya feel ya feel you too
A mortal I'm made of and yes the rest of you too
I feel ya feel ya feel you too
I know you want a perfect world but there's nothing else
you can do
I feel ya feel ya feel you too
A mortal I'm made of and yes the rest of you too

I feel ya feel ya feel you too

Verse3:

Like they say first shame on me, second fool on you Because I felt so unhappy the stuff you put me through Till you realize I was flesh and wasn't perfect in your eyes

That I wasn't always right, it's like you swallowed your pride

Blood flowing through the veins of my fleshly body Sometimes I do certain things that are really really naughty

But if you look deeper into why I can't always be right
It's because I'm not superhuman, can't take flight

Chorus: (2x's)

I know you want a perfect world but there's nothing else
you can do

I feel ya feel ya feel you too

A mortal I'm made of and yes the rest of you too

I feel ya feel ya feel you too

I know you want a perfect world but there's nothing else
you can do

I feel ya feel ya feel you too

A mortal I'm made of and yes the rest of you too

I feel ya feel ya feel you too
