Chorus: (2x's)

Back up my nigga back up,
Nigga why you all over my cup
I don't know you so nigga back up
Look at that nigga expression now he stuck

Verse1:

When I step up in this party, forget everybody
Don't speak, don't talk unless you a hottie
Very rude don't have time to be up in your face
Besides I aint with the niggaz that talk sideways
I came on business shit don't have time for runners
I don't care what you do just know I'm a stunner
While I'm here I just want it to be peace and quiet
Don't step off in my zone or it's gonna be a riot

Chorus: (2x's)

Back up my nigga back up,
Nigga why you all over my cup
I don't know you so nigga back up
Look at that nigga expression now he stuck

Verse2:

When I step up in this party, forget everybody
Don't speak, don't talk unless you a hottie
Niggaz posted on the sides when I arrive
I aint looking for a greeting or a high five
Diamoned up from my chains down to my watches
Shoes on that cost more than yo freaking couches
You don't know me so back give me my space
When you see me, forget about me, erase

Chorus: (2x's)

Back up my nigga back up,
Nigga why you all over my cup
I don't know you so nigga back up
Look at that nigga expression now he stuck
