I'm about to take off

I know it might be better mc's
But I don't need the competition
Want them all to listen to me
My flow be so hott like 900 degress
In the next 30 secs I'll be on shopping sprees like

Chorus:

I don't be needing to worry about postponing
Don't need to stay all up in my own zone and
I don't need bet-ter rappers than me
Need it my way with all the victory
Hu hu hu my way
I want to rock the mic all night long

Verse1:

Yep in this world of competition I be seeing a lot of battle
New mcs, tracks that please, just more wolves to the cattle
Cause I know my lyrics dope but wish everyone knew All the non supporting rappers put they mic down and be threw
And become obsessed fans requoting lyrics till they can't chew
Naw it'll be my fault for music so addicting they'll sue
But it's better to be known than to be like "who"
And listener don't began to disagree cause you know it's true

It's like if you want to make it to hollywood then move
Oh but before you make it big labels gotta approve
And don't put me beside a better mc to lose
Gotta make it to the studio alarm clock snooze

It's like they want me going one way, but rebellion just reversed it
Cause they had me set for failure, just like someone had cursed it
Bring myself back to reality, realizing my gift

I don't need to worlds approval, I'll manually uplift

Chorus:

Hu hu hu my way

I want to rock the mic all night long

Verse2:

Watching kids download my music anxiously awaits me

But I gets more love from those yo that hate me

If I ever got rich I be like yo gate me

Privacy of my house from haters that try to take me

And I aint stopping music yo cause they can't make me

All they want to do is critize, defame, and rate me

Till they take me to the top no more noodles but steak

gee

I started out on computers kept it real never faking

I see myself proccessing to the new

So sit back and relax enjoy the show too

Chorus:

I don't be needing to worry about postponing

Don't need to stay all up in my own zone and

I don't need bet-ter rappers than me

Need it my way with all the victory

Hu hu hu my way

I want to rock the mic all night long
