intro: no overnighters

verse1:

where my lovers from the u.s. all the way to jamaica my music travel faster than the speed of sound asia nowadays everybody having sex for the paper if she dont want commitment my brothas you cant make her people giving up they bodys to buy bags outta saks fifth time you tried to wifer but she holding love back they always fall for one night stands like ushers climax bodys used up more than car models at carmax chorus:

said you want to get with me, then you gotta come better
just some love, loyal affection makes the relationship wetter
you want to ride, then we can ride limousines to the wedding
want to cuddle, have yo ring on when we dive in the bedding
my fetish always been romance not whats lurking in pants you want to foreplay dish out vows then for me you can
dance
i can give you more than overnighters give me the chance
i know you havent had the best youre worth more than one night stands

i want to be closer to you but see you chose the sheets in yo twisted world of love, sex orgies and freaks that kinda life leave you cut short relationships bleek you can hide all the lust but when you ready come seek you cant change a hoe into housewife so you know i aint pushing i want to trust you dont want to be left homeless footing walls torn down like houses now im asking for cushion yeah its funny but you should be asking for douching

chorus:

you want to ride, then we can ride limousines to the
i can give you more than overnights give me the

verse3:

all you know is fancy hotels sago palms in the loft how far you gonna go how much its gone cost yo whole perspective is off balance so they calling you lost conversation, sex orgasms and then you tossed if only you seen the big picture come on instagrams now i got yo mouth closed silence of the lambs all yo ex's were yo ex's cause they hit it and bam yeah i like you but you cant stick um calling you pam

chorus:

you want to ride, then we can ride limousines to the
