Um starting out like this people say they hate my rap
Oh well who cares um the one put on the map
Oh well who cares cause my bill is overdue
Oh well who cares if my shoes aren't even new Um repping for the worryers tell em clear out yo mind
Don't stress don't worry with god you'll always shine
Listen to your instinct never go through life blind
If you seem to fail a test oh well at least you tried
Remember you never a failure until you surely quit

Cause it's gonna be a while before I turn in my fame
If you liking it fine if not you'll get used to my game
