Verse1:

God

I think about where we first started

Didn't know what I was getting in (getting in)

Till I release sinful hearted (oh lord ya)

But today (today)

I'm putting all my old sins away

Makes me wanna get close to you again

I feel like praising (praising him)

Chorus:

You keep changing things

You keep changing things

I feel like praising you again

I feel like praising you again

Your love stays the same

Your love stays the same

I feel like praising again

I feel like praising again

Verse2:

God

You knew a way to mend my broken heart

That's why with faith we shall never depart again

Tell me that you'll always be my friend (I'm listening)

Oh god

I don't know where to start

This life sometimes do get hard (and)

I just don't want us to depart (you know me) (you know me)

Chorus:

You keep changing things
You keep changing things
I feel like praising you again
I feel like praising you again
Your love stays the same
Your love stays the same
I feel like praising again
I feel like praising again
