Ayeee this for my people always stay on they namebrands
Keep them namebrand cloths aye

Verse1:

Look at them versace shoes on my feet the way I walk Yall can tell I know my brands just by the way I talk Hugo jeans calvin klein designer shirts color of chalk When I sport my graphic boxers, family guy incredible hulk
And I worship god but I love my true religions Armani, dis aint funny I know yall truly digging Shredded levis for them thighs, food court truly pigging
If aint namebrand then you know that you aint truly living
I got four closets cause I stay true to my fashion Others rock generic brands with me high prices it's passion
Like polo, mark echo, then I step out be flashing Got all expensive brand colognes on the side and they be smashing
Fitted caps give me dap gotta stay in the game
New jordans shoes every week, I can't be rocking the same
I like colors many colors wont catch rocking nothing plain Gucci shades with timberland boots engraved on my belt is fame

Chorus:

So they asked me what I'm wearing I looked at em like
duh
I stay branded up
Tennis shoes on my feet that cost a pretty buck
I stay branded up
The reason why they mug me up and down when I'm in the club
I stay branded up
These niggas funny I think you better whip me up another cup

I stay branded up

Verse2:

I can't just buy one piece I gotta buy a couple racks Work my fingers to the bone just to spend a couple
But when I step on the scene I be looking like that Prada bag with the new addidas shoe laces fat Designer belts different colors with the stylish theme Everyday it's like I won a shopping spree scream
If you like to shop too I'm recruiting you to my team Meet me at the mall no sign ups rip offs or schemes
I love my dress shirts too just brought perry ellis Don't need a survey just know I'm gone buy as long as yall selling
Where I get them custom made's nevermind I aint telling Rocawear coogi sean john all in the mail and Bout to head out to the outlet looking for a hat Namebrand fashions think that's gonna be my next tat
I got more cheese than a mousetrap set for a rat Look at them namebrand socks I wear them high when I'm in lac

Chorus: (2x's)

So they asked me what I'm wearing I looked at em like
duh
I stay branded up
Tennis shoes on my feet that cost a pretty buck
I stay branded up
The reason why they mug me up and down when I'm in
the club
I stay branded up
These niggas funny I think you better whip me up
another cup
I stay branded up
