Chorus:

That's just what you get
Oh that's just what you get
That's just what you get
(I don't know why she want him bad on the side)
Oh that's just what you get

Verse1:

I know revenge is not of god so I must just forgive Can't believe she let this nigga roam inside where we live
Can't believe she wanted this nigga all the whole time Can't believe she even thought to date a close friend of mine
That's a nigga for you, better yet one for her
Couldnt see without me in her life would soon be a blur Wish I never brought her louie purse on side with the fur
She didn't wear none of this for me but for him so she lured
Now you remember last time what you did caused me annoy
Don't play dumb I'm talking when you cheated played wit ya boy
Don't be playing with my feelings yo I aint ya hurt toy
I think I'll leave the crib tonight hit up chinese with some soy
Then I'll come back reminisce think of how I was treated
Like ceelo said forget you see yall both just defeated
Nevermind I leave yall be cause I see I wasn't needed Karma came back, now you see he wack, disrespectful you treated

Chorus:

That's just what you get
Oh that's just what you get
That's just what you get
(I don't know why she want him bad on the side)
Oh that's just what you get

Verse2:

See when we both were together we called our house a home

But with you and him together you might as well say you alone

He got you twisted all up worshipping him at his throne

I used to love ya but I had to move ya outta my zone

Move ya outta my space move ya leaving no trace

And don't remember all our good times cause with me they erased

Can't believe I sacrifice my family just for your face

Kissing you everyday, waking up so merry

Christmas time saw you in the store nodding your head

It's like your upbright spirit vanished something inside was dead

I know you did me wrong but seeing him do you wrong I just dread

Nevermind "I hate you so much" those were words I just said

The time is setting itself for me to get you back

But I know you're game, psychology, it's gets really whack

Couldnt decided on our destiny pull up a chair and just sat

Then I thought, really thought hard, I don't want you back

Chorus (2x's)

That's just what you get

Oh that's just what you get

That's just what you get

(I don't know why she want him bad on the side)

Oh that's just what you get
