Verse1:

It's all starting to add up like a multiplication chart Yall musics on the boards targets and I am the dart My fanz was ready for suspense so they gonna love this part What better way to lay it on em with a beat that's this hard
I'm bout business, my paper, with a side of ciroc Clients never arrive late when I'm watching the clock Waking up because my alarm screaming tick tock tick tock
Always keep my eyes on my prey like a broad wing hawk Funeral homes overloaded because I killed the lame rappers
Said I wasn't built for this industry in they face it was slappers
Flow thicker than strippers booty jumpin up and down clappers
My posey stay on my side loaded with the glock snappers
So they arrived at the scene caught me out at the studio
A lil too late they smiles faded cause they know I'm gone blow
Like 007 it's many missions so I'll just take em slow They tried to reach me but I stay tied more than ornament bows

Chorus: (2x's)

Ha ha ha I got the drop on yall now
I know yall thinking no way there's gotta be somehow
The only expression on yall face I like is wow Yall came a minute too late I got the drop on yall now

Verse2:

See when say I got the drop it's like the victorys been sealed Like ariel when she gave her voice up to ursula and the eels Like sin city when the prostitutes were loaded then they killed

Obama killing osama revengeful greed fulfilled
My talent shine like a royal miami beach lighthouse If I'm around you can hear a rat piss on cotton better yet mouse
I repping for my niggaz out to get it florida down south These niggaz ludacris but I'm the one with the word of mouf
When I step out on the scene I like to keep a lot of swagger
I'm telling yall I got the moves they call mick jaggar Don't bring yo girl out on the scene because I'm bound to tagger Take her out on shopping strolls lunches yes tea bag her
It's a lil too late I done dropped a couple tracks I done paved the way for music so how yall like that Ora is so amazing lyrics just so unsolvable Gone ahead and abort cause with me it's mission impossible

Chorus: (2x's)

Ha ha ha I got the drop on yall now
I know yall thinking no way there's gotta be somehow
The only expression on yall face I like is wow
