Intro:

I've seen so many scenarios
Beautiful girls in bad relationships
Well this ones for yall

Verse1:

You done been a good girl, you have done your part
So why this nigga trying to focus on breaking yo heart
Always hold his drugs for him but never hold his stash
When he went to jail you bailed him with your cash
The world don't see how you do it and your mothers depressed
What about that time he threaten to put a bullet hole through your chest
Everything he done karma has already took note
That's why he have so much bad luck and his dreams never float
Last night you came home thought everything okay
Soft voices, rough noises you had to leave couldnt stay
The next day apologized told you all of his lies Cold hearted man left you heart broken with cries
When his family come over it's his time to show out When they leave a different story without the shadow of a doubt
The moon set another night he left you lonely at home
Then he comes in lays in the bed with you like he wasn't wrong

Chorus:

When he falls asleep, when he falls asleep
You need to take everything back away that you own
When he falls asleep, when he falls asleep
You need to head for the hills into a happy home
When he falls asleep, when he falls asleep
Girl take everything away from him that you own
When he falls asleep when he falls asleep
You need to head for the hills and to a happy home

Verse2:

You aint a girl that like the trap but you did it all from him

Risking your life like a cat caught out on a limb
He never appreciated how attractive you look Staring down every pretty girl walk by in the book
Then he got you pregnant and he know it's his baby
But when questioned handling responsibilities maybe Sometimes you wish you can turn back the hands of time
Before you met him single sexy and free on your grind
It's just been so many years and you tired of his stuff
Jail, prison, cheating, beatings don't you get enough
Had to fist fight his ex stepped out of yo character Seen her in the wic office just set back and stared at her
It's such gloomy future so you decide to let go But how you gonna leave when you don't want him to know
You want you life back your happiness like it used to be Waited on the right time so you could finally be free

Chorus: (2x's)

When he falls asleep, when he falls asleep
You need to take everything back away that you own
When he falls asleep, when he falls asleep
You need to head for the hills into a happy home
When he falls asleep, when he falls asleep
Girl take everything away from him that you own
When he falls asleep when he falls asleep
You need to head for the hills and to a happy home
