Uh huh
That's right
It's avias
On the mic

Chorus:
You can act crazy if you want to
Saying stuff that you don't do
Want me to pay the whole bill
Took that blame and don't even steal
Talking bout what you can't stand
Can't stand um #1 man
Being a lame and making me pissed
It's okay you gladly been dismissed

Verse1:
If you a fake phoney person I consider you a lame
I don't have to deal with this so find another man
I'm... about... to... click
This... some... fuck... shit
And you aint saying nothing good thing I got my choice
I'm tired of your presence um sick of your voice
Acting stuck up is another thing I can't see
And if you don't want to do shit get the fuck away from me
This track is about people that just urk your nerves
And you wondering what's next how to kick em to the curbs
Now for the slow people I been rapping about this
If you didn't understand then you gladly been dismissed
All my ladies say "YEAH" block them hoes out yo life
All my fellas say Man voice say "YO" flip them phonies just like dice
And they aint gonna tell you that they are a lame
So you go to do your research and step up yo game
You don't have to face the fact of the situation you in
If a nigga real flaw bring that head to an end

Chorus:
You can act crazy if you want to
Saying stuff that you don't do

Want me to pay the whole bill
Took that blame and don't even steal
Talking bout what you can't stand
Can't stand um #1 man
Being a lame and making me pissed
It's okay you gladly been dismissed

Verse2:

See where I'm from people always phoney in my town
And the ones that's real don't even stand they own ground
Shit... that... people... do
You... don't... have... to Put up with that garbage just block them niggaz out That's why me with the drama they don't bring it they opt out
It's used to be a time when I was scared in life
To tell a friend bye that's when I paid the price
But you learn from you lessons and now I'm really bright
And I aint taking bullshit I'll knock out yo lights
I remember when I stole from the store with a girl
Then police hand cuff me they fucked up my world
See when that girl called that day to tell me lets go steal
I shouldve said you've been dismissed and closed up the deal
I refuse to find myself in a hard spot in life yo
People in and out my life when it's easy to let go Don't come with the drama you should wish on you the same
Oh noooooo(ECHO) it's too late you gladly dismissed man

Chorus:

You can act crazy if you want to
Saying stuff that you don't do
Want me to pay the whole bill
Took that blame and don't even steal
Talking bout what you can't stand
Can't stand um #1 man
Being a lame and making me pissed
It's okay you gladly been dismissed

Verse3:

It's like being in a class and you ready for recess
Soon as that bell ring you travel east west
This... verse... is... for Haters... that... want... more
Attention from me but they not about to get it
They hating on my rhymes that's just because they ignorant

You can love me or hate me like sovereign said
But if you choose to hate I'm still alive not dead
I forgot people hate shit they don't understand
Well for you listening um the number one man
Not because I rap but because I got a plan
You alone don't scare me so please don't attempt to stand
Out is where your opinions going out in the trash
If you looking for wealth then I withhold the stash
But you need to learn a lesson something I really insist
If you really hate me hate but I don't have to put with it
See it's only three words that change a cat to a fish
And if I want victory then you gladly been dismissed

Chorus:

You can act crazy if you want to
Saying stuff that you don't do
Want me to pay the whole bill
Took that blame and don't even steal
Talking bout what you can't stand
Can't stand um #1 man
Being a lame and making me pissed
It's okay you gladly been dismissed

Chorus:

You can act crazy if you want to
Want me to pay the whole bill
Took that blame and don't even steal
Talking bout what you can't stand
Can't stand um #1 man
Being a lame and making me pissed
It's okay you gladly been dismissed
