Chorus:

Magic lamp can you grant me a wish
First one make these haterz get pissed
Cause um way to fly
No need to rock another rapper shit heres why These mc's need me to get by Cause they shit will never be this tight

Verse1:

Oneday I woke up put my dog tag on my chest
Put on my chucktaylors my rings and watches on my wrist
Then I proceeded to step outside
The climate felt good the world really wide
Then I noticed something that I never noticed before I saw a hide out with that a brass door
And I went inside to see what was instore
A gold lamp genie inside is what layed on the floor
So I never second guess my self I quickly rubbed
Then a genie appeared said avias wassup
I said I need a wish cause I know you grant three
But one major wish is keep these haterz off me
So the genie said your wish is my command
He glanced at me quickly stirred his hand
Wind shook the clubhouse so I knew I had to duck Didn't know what I was in for but he told me good luck
I told him why you say that cause nothing have changed
He told me it's cause you fly it's cause you're the man
I have always been able to perform any and every wish
But getting haterz off you is like a bureau having a glitch

Chorus: magic lamp can you grant me a wish
First one make these haterz get pissed
Cause um way to fly
No need to rock another rapper shit heres why

Verse2:

So I decided not to put more on him than he could bear
I told him that I needed to make my swag flare Genie said poof poof ali ka zaam

I see two fly albums you dropping people cars riding with that bam
Said yo look is appealing so a model you will be I see a song banging bout them chucks taylors on yo feet
He said yeah there's more rappers in lakeland they reside
But you the most talented that's why your music fly
I see them trying hard but all of them are fluzzies Your music taking you to the pros then houses with jacuzzis
I said thank you thank you thank you but please don't tell me no more Cause I knew this was bound to happen my destiny instore
Then he said better yet uma tell you what to do Make a song about reality like me right now talking to you
I told him yeah you right great but I can't move I'm idle Cause I know the lyrics would be banging but what's gone be the title
He said call the song magic lamp it don't matter avias it's you
I said cool you think people will listen he said yes this is true
That's why this song playing right now in your cd players on your screens
Because my music fly not that it's okay or not that it seems

Chorus: magic lamp can you grant me a wish
First one make these haterz get pissed
Cause um way to fly
No need to rock another rapper shit heres why
