Avias seay "on ya computer screens"

Intro:

Man I'm bout to log on my shit right now

Aye hold up!

That's that nigga Avias? (yea that's him)

I aint seen him in forever what the fuck he doing on here?

Nigga please!

Verse1:

Ayo take trip inside your pc and you find me virtualll

You said you had a lil too much of me nothing personal

5th grade was depressing cause I never focused lesson

Just focused on my haterz later on grab my blessing

You sound really gay... everyone had opinions

Why you walking that way... hurting feelings wasn't listening

But they never knew the truth what I was put here to do make music for you nickname they called me pooh

So middle school was aight hustled to fit in right never needed people to shine cause I was already bright

So they said okay friend we'll treat you really good let you fit in but remember in the end that you couldnt

Fit in our click you see cause we rolling the elite and you aint up to par so go have a seat

So I said okay yall gone see oneday until then uma let yall have it yall way

Chorus:

Now the little skinny boy that everyone never understood

Dun changed up the game dun switched up the hoods
Now yall wondering where um at cause yall see that I could

Be the next big star even like tiger woods

No need to wonder now what I'm doing what I'm about
Cause I'm taking music by storm and lame rappers out
See the game isn't so mean and the lyrics really clean
That's why you only can see me on ya computer screens

Verse2:

High school got better still sundays a little weather
But I still managed to withhold a mind really clever Cause why yall niggaz focused on what college yall was gonna get in
I was focusing on myself and where I was gonna begin
This music that's fly and modeling with a trend
So you say you need pointers it's okay but I can lend You a tip how to find me just turn on yo pc and you'll surely see me on ya monitor screens
A lil cocky cause I can be a lil vision cause I can see
And I know yall haterz out there aint got nothing on me
Remember everyone that always ends up in the last
Be the ones that make it my career bout to blast
I love sporting my chucks taylors and my tims
If you catch me on the scene it's with windows that dim
Cause you had your chance to be on my team
But you thought I was a failure everything not what it seems

Chorus:

Now the little skinny boy that everyone never understood
Dun changed up the game dun switched up the hoods
Now yall wondering where um at cause yall see that I could
Be the next big star even like tiger woods
No need to wonder now what I'm doing what I'm about
Cause I'm taking music by storm and lame rappers out
See the game isn't so mean and the lyrics really clean
That's why you only can see me on ya computer screens

Ending:

Nahh not Avias that lil nigga we used to clown in school
Oh that's wassup! That nigga got some fly shit!
Aye google that nigga and see if you can find a contact!
Shit I'm jealous! but I give him props!
