Bill of goods or just a fake tattoo I bought everything to be like you

Emptied out and try to fill the hole Weigh the value with and empty soul Now I can see where-

[Chorus:] The boundaries have no end Trinidad and a DC-10

Bigger promise A forgetful boy Catch the theif of all the stolen joy

When the darkness breathes it's final breath Then the morning comes to rescue us So we can be-

[Chorus]

And I finally find significance Giving up I'm given all you are

I'm on a breakthrough I won't desert you I'm on a breakthrough-

[Chorus]

Gonna fly with all my friends Trinidad and a DC-10

Where the boundaries have no end Trinidad and a DC-10
