If fear's what makes us decide
Our future journey
Well, I'm not along for a ride
'Cause I'm still yearning

To try and touch the sun
My fingers burning
Before you're old you are young
Yeah, I'm still learning

I am falling down
Try and stop me
It feels so good to hit the ground
You can watch me
Fall right on my face
It's an uphill human race
And I am falling down

I'm standing out in the street
The earth is moving
I feel it under my feet and I'm still proving
That I can stand my ground

And my feet aren't there
Haven't washed my hair
To be lost before you are found
Don't mean you're losing

I am falling down
Try and stop me
It feels so good to hit the ground
You can watch me
Fall right on my face
It's an uphill human race
And I am falling down

Some day I'll live in a house
Et cetera, et cetera, et cetera
But you know that's not for now
And for now I'm falling down, down, down
Down, down, down
Down, down, down

Yeah, yeah, yeah

I am falling down
Try and stop me
It feels so good to hit the ground
You can watch me
Fall right on my face
It's an uphill human race
And I am falling down

I'm falling down, falling down
Falling, falling, falling
Falling
It feels so good to hit the ground
I am falling, falling down
