Got em on the line again, tongue in ear
Seducing their lips to adhere
To your proposititions made of gas
Explodes in their face, to please the brass

Oh yeah you do it well
But you can't break free from what you feel
Oh yeah you do it well
But you can't break free from what you steal

Be a good kid, pick up the slack
A bubbly facade to pick up green backs
Backing the bastards that everybody backs
Bodies by the bill built in baby stacks

Oh yeah you do it well
But you can't break free from what you feel
Oh yeah you do it well
But you can't break free 'cause you do not feel

You do what works, who cares if you're a jerk
It's a nebulous concept anyway
You do it well, you do it well.
You do what you do, you say what you say
It's just another little game that you play

Oh yeah oh no alright not this time this time
Go

Oh yeah you do it well
But you can't break free from what you feel
Oh yeah you do it well
But you can't break free from what you steal
