Oh how I've gotten use to the feeling at hand
Empty shell: jaded man
Collecting misfortunes in jars on a stand
This is exactly how it's supposed to be
Hating the taste but you know it helps you sleep
The corners of my roof leak
It's collapsing
But you're all the rage now
It's nothing new
It's funny how you turned out just to be Exactly like the ones you used to hate
Telling all your brand new friends of me
I don't believe a god damn word you say
Don't speak to me
Music is the same
Only notes can change
I couldn't stay the same living in this constant state of derailment
When you're just adding strength to waves that break
How can I even catch my breath
Trust me when I say I'm sorry
I'm lying through my teeth
After all we're just wolves inside sheep
The moon is out tonight
At least I only change at night
A pacing phrase: remove or runaway.
