"Natural"

Isms and answers, heathens and saints
Prayer and cancer, color and paints

War and nations, people fight, follow cues
War and nations, people die, win and lose

Natural disasters, natural highs
The natural answer is a natural lie

War and nations people fight follow cues,
War and nations people die, win and lose

Everybody knows that it's natural,
You gotta compromise just to pay the bill
Everybody knows that it's natural
And we're all just natural suckers
Everybody knows it's just fear that grows
And grows and grows like a bomb in your
Fist that explodes

So what is natural, what is natural
So what is natural, what is natural
Natural dancer
So what is natural, what is natural
