Waited so long for a taste so strong but subtle
Drips from the tips of my lips into a puddle
Hits just right till the end of the night through(until)
Morning, ought to have a label with a warning

Save your pennies, cause she likes dollar bills
She'll make your grass grow like science
Go fight kill oh
She's got the chemicals
She's got the chemicals
She's got the chemicals

In a fit for the benefit of her touch
I feel it all the time but it costs so much
Now i run around this town to find the clown that feeds
Me. but it's the king of bling bling that really needs me

Oh oh oh oh, na na na na na na
